

UNION MISSION ASSOCIATION WILL BUILD CHAPEL AT TRAINING SCHOOL

PROPOSED NEW CHAPEL OF THE UNION MISSION.

Plans are being prepared for the construction of a new chapel adjoining the Union Mission Association Training School at Garrison avenue and Morgan streets. The work on the new building will commence about November 1 and will likely be completed within two months.

It is estimated that the chapel will cost $5,000 and will have a seating capacity of about 400. In addition to the main auditorium the building will also contain schoolrooms.

Two years ago the association purchased the C. F. Richardson home and converted it into a headquarters for a missionary training school and home and foreign field work in missions and rescue homes.

The work is systematically controlled by boards composed of representatives from the various denominations in St. Louis.

The Board of Trustees having charge of the work is composed of M. B. Gott, president; L. D. Abbott, treasurer; the Reverend Fred C. Thomas, secretary; M. R. Evans, J. L. Hackett, F. M. Montague, Mrs. E. O. Otto, J. J. Lawrence, H. B. Howard, Mrs. E. Riegel, the Reverend L. I. Pickett, M. L. Haney, E. A. Ferguson and J. J. Smith.

It has been unique in many features, not the least of which is the fact that it is composed of both white and black children and children of many nationalities.

The work is entirely undenominational.
